

ARTIST'S BLEND

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Great King Street

Our Great King Street range is dedicated to applying a contemporary approach to the creation of Blended Scotch Whiskies in the full-flavoured style of the late 19th century blending houses.

ARTIST'S BLEND

Inspired by 100-year-old recipes, Artist's Blend is a tribute to the craft and creativity of the great whisky makers of the past. It is incredibly versatile, drinkable and delicious owing to the marriage of flavourful single malt whiskies and delicate single grain whiskies - a combination which helped to make Scotch whisky one of the world's most famous drinks.

THE GREAT KING STREET RANGE

By applying the same skill, techniques and philosophy that we use for the core range of COMPASS BOX whiskies, GREAT KING STREET offers a style and approach to Blended Scotch that has not existed before.

We drew on archive recipes from the golden era of whiskymaking and applied our own 21st Century cask maturation techniques to create whiskies with a high single malt content, delivering compelling flavour and complexity while maintaining the versatility of a Blended Scotch.
